❖ FEATURES

The Smart Age of Faxing for Workgroups

Sending a fax has been with us for many decades, Plustek decided to remake the fax by creating the best experience, ever! Not too long ago, a fax operator would dial and wait for the confirmation noise that would let them know that the document was being sent. Nowadays, most people can receive faxes through email; however, the sending process is still an issue even when using an all-in-one printer. With new tech devices being released every day; the demands to learn something new can lead to more work pressures.

- ✓ Make the device work like an appliance that lets people power on and start scanning
- ✓ Creating an intuitive visual page layout to minimize the learning curve
- ✓ Provide a fresh user interface without using

Plustek designed a whole new intuitive user interface (UI) for the eScan A150 and bring back the ease of faxing in a device creating a new age of "faxing" fusion.
